Aspire INSTITUTE

Transforming the lives of first-generation and limited income college students around the world

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

It is our pleasure to acknowledge the accomplishments of Andriatsilavo Kevin Mickael RAKOTONINDRINA in the Aspire Leaders Program at the Aspire Institute, a nonprofit organization whose mission is to empower emerging leaders from first generation, limited income backgrounds to achieve economic mobility and community impact.

The Aspire Leaders Program, designed by Harvard Business School professors, is a rigorous 9-week learning experience that develops learners into confident, self-aware leaders who can set goals, communicate effectively, and take action to solve real-world problems.

Andriatsilavo Kevin Mickael was among the 13,274 finalists who successfully completed the program out of 65,046 students accepted to Cohort 1 in 2026.

We commend Andriatsilavo Kevin Mickael for their dedication and achievement and look forward to the contributions they will make as a leader in their community and beyond.

Sincerely,

Meena Sonea

MEENA SONEA

CEO, ASPIRE INSTITUTE

programs@aspireleader.org www.aspireleaders.org

255 Main St 8th floor, Cambridge, MA 02142